ML

1/21/67

Dear Mr. Somarkoff,

Many people are writing their Congressmen and Senators and various newspapers.

This is the way our society is supposed to work, and I believe if enough of us try hard enough we can make it work.

I believe also that if enough legislators hear from their constituents, they will find the courage to speak out. A few have already indicated misgivings.

Sincerely,

Harold Weisberg